POWERHOUSE AUTHOR COLLAB

These are two rockstar authors working together for the first time! Brittany Cavallaro is a beloved Harper house author whose Charlotte Holmes series hit the New York Times bestseller list. Jeff Zentner won the Morris Award, among other accolades, for his teen novels with Crown. They originally worked together to create the verse for Jeff's novel In the Wild Light, and we're excited to be publishing their first official collaboration.

This novel has a similar premise as the Richard Linklater "Before" film trilogy. Florence and Jude attend the same summer camp throughout high school, but they only meet on the last night of camp. ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Leon Kemp lives in Melbourne, where they achieved a Bachelor of Arts with a major in creative writing. Ages 13 and up, 304 pages, Pub June 19, 2024

Click Here to Read

Perfect for fans of Ace of Spades and The Taking of Jake Livingston, this young adult horror debut is told in dual timelines: following a group of teens as they visit an abandoned school for troubled youth—and then return two years later to confront the supernatural evil they awoke there.

Two years ago, Riley visited the abandoned and allegedly haunted religious reform school Dominic House with his boyfriend Ethan, and his best friends Colton and Vee. Ethan never came out. Colton's leg will never quite heal, Vee is branded as hysterical, and Riley has horrific scars as a reminder of that night. Now at eighteen, Riley hasn't exactly moved on, but he's kept away from all things paranormal. Until legendary ghost chaser Jordan Jones shows up with an offer: return to Dominic House with her to film an episode of her Spirit Seekers tv show. Riley may have vowed never to return, but he has unfinished business at Dominic House. With a reluctant Colton and Vee at his side, Riley is determined to find out what happened to Ethan once and for all. But as the night wears on, Riley realizes he isn't just revisiting the most terrifying night of his life— he's reliving it.

ACCESSIBLE HORROR

While this story has plenty of eerie atmosphere and creepy jump-scars for horror lovers, it also feels accessibly fun and thrilling for readers who don't dabble often in the genre—making this a perfect read for fans of Ace of Spades and The Taking of Jake Livingston.

LGBTQIA+ VOICE & ROMANCE

The romance between Riley and Ethan is stunningly compelling and heartfelt, and Riley's unstoppable determination to find and save Ethan lends a profound thread to their story that elevates this beyond a run-of-the-mill, jump scare ghost story.
