THE NAKED FISHERMAN

— Jewel E. Ann —

A young woman discovers that years of Sunday sermons didn't prepare her for the crude and sexy man who is now her boss.

It's official.

I'm eighteen and a young woman with endless possibilities on my way to reunite with my mom in Colorado after five years apart—she had a little weed incident in Nebraska.

At the airport, she springs the news on me ... she's leaving for a month of job training. And me? I'm left on my own in the basement she's renting from the fisherman, aka her landlord who lives upstairs.

He's ten years older than me. Never wears a shirt. And makes it hard to remember all the things I learned at Christian Academy.

RINGS OF FATE

— Melissa de la Cruz —

A sexy, edgy Princess Bride meets Wheel of Time, in which an every-girl barmaid and the swashbuckling prince who gets on her last nerve hold the world's fate in their hands

HEAVENLY BODIES

series

Imani Erriu

A slow burn, enemies-to-lovers romantasy, with fan-favorite elements like morally grey love interests, fated mates, found family and a male lead who will seek revenge on anyone who touches the woman he loves.

In a world where no entities exist but the Stars, cruel and merciless gods that watch over the world, Elara has been cursed by fate. A prophecy that promises she will fall for a Star, and it will kill them both.

But when one descends to wreak havoc on Elara's Kingdom, she is forced to flee into the arms of her enemy in the neighbouring country.

As she learns more about her own magic, and the depth of the Stars' deceit, she also finds herself learning more about the country she is forced to take refuge in, and the enemy prince forced to train her into a weapon.

Something dark brews within her, a power made of night and shadows that begs to be broken free.

THE NEIGHBOR WAGER

Crystal Kaswell

A modern, gender-twist on the classic romantic comedy Sabrina.

Deanna is all work, no play. She's too busy running her soon-to-be fortune 500 tech company, currently launching the world's best dating site. For women. By women. All driven by her genius algorithm. Case in point: her kid sister and co-founder, Lexi, the company's #1 test case. Despite Lexi's preference for casual encounters, the app found her Mr. Right. Just in time for the company to secure major investment.

Then the boy next door ruins everything.

River, their dorky neighbor who read comic books instead of going to parties, is now a hunk--not to mention charming and witty. Oh, and he's still totally in love with beautiful, effervescent Lexi, and she's responding to his sudden attention. No way. Deanna isn't letting anyone--much less some guy who's been MIA for years--tank their company. She's not letting River anywhere near her sister. But the only way to keep him away from Lexi is to keep him busy. With her.

Except, he's not so bad. He's kinda funny actually. And sweet. And a great kisser. Wait, why are they kissing? They really shouldn't be kissing.

Key Selling Points

- "Delightful! This modern-day twist on "Much Ado About Nothing" is sure to please both lovers of romance and Shakespeare."
- Kaswell has sold nearly 100,000 e-books, and millions of Kindle pages in the UK
- This book has everything: girl enemies-to-lovers, wedding drama, public declarations of love, and a nosy old lady neighbor.

THE PLAYBOY

— Marni Mann —

A sizzling grumpy-sunshine, boy-obsessed, one-night-stand romance from USA Today best-selling author Marni Mann

Spade. People know what to expect when they hear my last name. Billionaire. Alphahole. The forever bachelor. Heir to Spade Hotels, one of the most luxurious brands in the world. Want to know what they would never call me? Boyfriend. Until her. With one glance at her in the club, I'm ready to claim her for the night. Dark, flowing hair. A smile that causes my heart to pound. Eyes that pierce my soul. And a perfect body that makes every part of me pulse. She's addictive. Electrifying. Consuming. I've never wanted anyone more. Our eyes meet, but she looks right past me. She isn't here for me. She's here for the music. For the first time in my life, a woman makes me work for it. Her indifference fuels the fire inside me. The result? One night. No names. No introductions. Just pleasure. The way I've always liked it. But now, I find myself fantasizing about this gorgeous stranger, and I swear I can still feel the softness of her skin and taste her on my lips. The minute I saw her, a switch flipped inside me. Now, how do I stop this raging ... obsession? When our paths cross again in the most unexpected way, I'm on a mission to make her mine. But what happens when she wants nothing to do with me?

Key Selling Points

- Mann is an USA Today Best Selling Author, also an Amazon, Apple Books and Barnes & Noble Best Selling Author and has reached the Amazon Top 20 Best Selling Authors
- Her previous book, When Ashes Fall, was an Amazon Best Book of the Year and Apple Books Best Book of the Month

THE DESIGN OF US

— Sajni Patel —

One impulsive lie leads to a weeklong adventure of fake dating for two bickering coworkers in this swoony destination wedding rom-com.

Sunshine expected to get a reprieve from Bhanu while visiting her family in Hawaii, but the universe has other plans.

When Bhanu runs into Sunny at the hotel and witnesses his ex criticizing him about being single, Bhanu does the first thing that comes to mind: she impetuously claims to be Sunny's girlfriend just to get some peace and quiet.

Except Sunny is on island for a friend's wedding and his ex has already texted the entire wedding party about this mysterious girlfriend.

Between Bhanu's hilariously meddling family and Sunny's ecstatic friends, the two are pushed closer together, even as stress mounts over the impending promotion.

They say what happens on island, stays on island. But as Sunny and Bhanu let their guards down, will either of them be able to resist this romantic getaway without crossing the line?

CHAINS OF SEVEN

— Devney Perry —

The Witcher meets Cinderella in a story where a last of his kind, a princess, charged with protecting his kingdom, travels in secret while he looks for a cure

I was a princess of Calandra's five kingdoms and as unnecessary as a three-legged throne. I'd made peace with my unimportance. I was content to blend into the walls and always stand a pace behind.

Until the day the Guardian sailed to our shores. Until a stranger claimed me as his bride price.

That was the day I learned not all monsters were created by the Gods.

Not all myths were make-believe.

And the most frightening of them all just might be my new husband...

THE ORDER OF MASKS

— Alina Bellchambers —

The Trials: a deadly competition testing physical endurance, strategy, and deception. Perfect to infiltrate, exploit & destroy the networks of power of the kingdom

Seventeen-year-old Mira Tundra, a performer from the Elusive Isles, dreams of a glittering future in the Ravalian Court. Training in secret, she intends to compete in the Trials: a deadly competition testing physical endurance, strategy, and deception. Any citizen brave enough to compete has the chance—however slim—of being selected to join one of three magical Orders. But when Mira announces her candidacy, unknowingly exposing her mother's dangerous past, that dream turns into a nightmare. Facing execution as the daughter of a traitor, the Trials become Mira's lifeline. And failure means death.

Eighteen-year-old Princess Scarlett Riviathon has spent her life on a knife edge: fighting to survive her half-brothers' sinister intentions and navigating her mother's vicious schemes. When Scarlett meets Mira, she sees an opportunity to alter the balance of power...but only if she can keep Mira alive through the Trials and use her in the Order of Masks.

THE ENCHANTED LIES OF CELESTE ARTOIS

— Ryan Gaudin —

In early 1900s Paris, Céleste Artois, a con artist, will make a deal with the devil in exchange for her life...and change the fate of the world

Once, Céleste Artois had dreams of being an artist. But when the creative elite of Paris dashed those plans, she turned her talents to forgery and cons. She and the Enchantresses—her two fellow thieves and best friends—see Paris as a rich hunting ground for marks. Yet even though their hideout in Peré Lachaise cemetery is bursting with francs, Céleste cannot rest. There is always more to take. And the blood she has begun to cough into her handkerchief means her time is running out. But everything changes when she encounters Rafe, a mysterious and beautiful stranger who leads her to an enchanted salon—a place where artists can bring wondrous imaginations to life. Céleste is captivated by this establishment, and learns of the existence of magical Paris, hidden in the pockets and alleys of the ordinary world, if one only knows where to look.

Paranormal/Thriller/Romance

Key Selling Points

- A feminist and updated exploration of the worlds of Dracula and Sherlock Holmes, great classics still relevant 127 and 137 years later respectively.
- Directly appeals to crime novel, paranormal horror, historical novel, queer romance... - while remaining a product with a huge commercial potential!
- Kathryn Budig, with half a million followers on Instagram and Facebook, will promote Strange Beasts.

STRANGE BEASTS

— Susan J. Morris —

With clear references to Sherlock Holmes and Dracula, the Gothic aesthetic, the black novel and the paranormal terror paint this thriller, where two female detectives must hunt down the monster that ravages Paris.

At the dawn of the 20th Century in Paris, Samantha Harker, daughter of Dracula's killer, works as a researcher for the Royal Society for the Study for Abnormal Phenomena. But no one realizes how abnormal she is. Sam is a channel into the minds of monsters: a power that could help her solve the gruesome deaths plaguing turn-of-the-century Paris—or have her thrown into the asylum.

Sam finds herself assigned to a case with Dr. Helena Moriarty, daughter of the criminal mastermind and famed nemesis of Sherlock Holmes—a notorious detective that no one wants to work with on account of her previous partners' mysterious murders. As the investigation sweeps them into a race to find and stop "the beast" from its killing rampage, ranging from the elite clubs of Paris to the dark underbelly of the catacombs, Hel and Sam are pitted against men, monsters, and even each other. But beneath their tenuous trust, an unmistakable attraction brews. Is trusting Hel the key to solving the murder, or is Sam yet another pawn in Hel's game?

THESE DEADLY PROPHECIES

— Andrea Tang —

A teenage sorcerer's apprentice must solve her boss's murder in order to prove her innocence in this twisty, magic-infused murder mystery perfect for fans of Knives Out and The Inheritance Games.

Being an apprentice to one of the world's most famous sorcerers has its challenges; Tabatha Zeng just didn't think they would include solving crime. But when her boss, the infamous fortuneteller Sorcerer Solomon, predicts his own brutal death—and worse, it comes true—Tabatha finds herself caught in the crosshairs.

The police have their sights set on her and Callum Solomon, her murdered boss's youngest son. With suspicion swirling around them, the two decide to team up to find the real killer and clear their own names once and for all.

But solving a murder isn't as easy as it seems, especially when the suspect list is mostly the rich, connected, and magical members of Sorcerer Solomon's family. And Tabatha can't quite escape the nagging voice in her head asking: just how much can she really trust Callum Solomon?

Nothing is as it seems in this quick-witted and fantastical murder mystery.

Key Selling Points

- INFERNO'S HEIR leaves the reader breathless with its unapologetic, unflinching heroine who will do anything to survive
- Being a fantasy clearly based on the far east, it will catch the eye of many readers seeking a gateway to the eastern cultures.
- Morally grey characters whose choices have real and lasting repercussions, being a more mature work that will also appeal to NA readers!

INFERNO'S HEIR

— Tiffany Wang —

Fearing for her life, an outcast princess joins the rebellion against her own kingdom and family... but when playing with fire, someone always gets burned

Teia Carthan abandoned her morals long ago, and now there's nothing she won't do to stay alive. So far she has survived her parents' deaths, the ire of the Council, and innumerable attempts on her life, orchestrated by Jura, her half brother and soon-to-be king of Erisia. Teia's rare control over two elements marks her as both an outsider and a formidable opponent—but once Jura is crowned king, there will be no way to survive him. Not for Teia, not for anyone.

When Jura moves to crush the rebellion that seeks to overthrow the monarchy, Teia sees one last opportunity to ensure her own safety. She can infiltrate the rebels, locate their base ... and betray them to Jura, trading their lives for her own.

Yet when Teia meets the rebels, she gets far more than she bargained for. And when she gains not only their trust but their friendship, she begins to have doubts. Perhaps the rebels are right. Perhaps the Golden Palace should be torn down and the monarchy destroyed...

DEEP IS THE FEN

— Lili Wilkinson —

A teen girl joins forces with her nemesis to save her best friend from a sinister secret society

Merry doesn't need a happily-ever-after. Her life in the town of Candlecott is perfect just the way it is, with her best friend, Teddy, to keep her company. But it's her and Teddy's last summer together.

Teddy has joined the Toadmen—a men's only society best known for their backwards thinking and odd traditions, though Merry is certain that the Toadmen are dabbling in magic. Dangerous magic, the kind that spells curses. The kind that killed her mother.

Determined to save Teddy, Merry teams up with the person she hates most: Caraway Boswell, a snobby know-it-all who refuses to let anyone see his true self, and a fellow Toadman.

All he will tell Merry is that the clock is ticking. An ancient Toad ritual is being held in the bogs of Deeping Fen, and if Merry doesn't get Teddy out before it's finished, he will be lost to her forever. But the Toadmen have been keeping secrets, and the further Merry travels into Deeping Fen's foul waters, the more she wonders if she's truly come to rescue him...or if she's walking straight into a trap.

LONDON ON MY MIND

Clara Alves

Red, White & Royal Blue meets A Cuban Girl's Guide to Tea and Tomorrow in this unlikely London romance

Dayana has always dreamed of visiting London. But the trip of her dreams turns into a royal nightmare when her mother passes away. Now, Day must leave Rio de Janeiro to live with her estranged father and his new family in London.

She struggles to forgive her father for walking out on her and her mom all those years ago; fights with her stepsister constantly; detests her stepmother; and she can't even see One Direction in concert because they've been broken up for ages.

That's when she runs into the girl of her dreams. The coincidentally named Diana, a witty, funny, redhead who was in the middle of...escaping Buckingham Palace? Something isn't right here, but it makes Diana all the more alluring. As time passes, and the two girls grow closer, Day can't help but wonder if there is more than a little truth to the rumours surrounding Prince Arthur—and if Diana might be involved somehow. Is it all in her head, or could Day be caught up in a real-life royal scandal?

TIL DEATH DO US BARD

Rose Black

A charming queer cozy fantasy about an already established relationship, where one of them is being blackmailed to steal a powerful artifact capable of creating an undead army

It's been almost a year since Logan 'The Bear' Theaker hung up his axe and settled down with his sunshiny bard husband, Pie. But when Pie disappears, Logan is forced back into a world he thought he'd left behind.

Logan quickly discovers that Pie has been blackmailed into stealing a powerful artifact capable of creating an undead army. With the help of an old adversary and a ghost from his past, Logan sets out to rescue his husband.

But the further the quest takes him, the more secrets Logan uncovers. He'll need all his strength to rescue his husband—but can he save their marriage?

ROS DEMIR IS NOT THE ONE

— Leyla Brittan —

Ros will do whatever it takes to get the guy. At least... she thinks she will.

Sixteen-year-old Ros is a go-getter. When she wants something, she makes sure she gets it.

But a lingering rumor (and maybe some ambivalence about her half-Turkish heritage) has kept Ros from achieving the kind of reputation she deserves. So, after years of plotting her big comeback, she just needs one thing: a hot, adoring guy on her arm at the dance. And when she meets charming new classmate Aydın at the Pine Bay resort over the summer, she thinks she's found The One.

It doesn't work, though. And things get messy when Ros's plan ends up hurting the only friend she has left... poor, sweet, forgiving Eleanor. This has happened before—things tend to get messy with Ros around—and it's getting harder for her to ignore the pattern of hurt feelings. Plus, it seems like Ros and Aydın aren't really meant to be. What kind of a plan results in everyone ending up unhappy? Not a very good one.

Rom-Com/Contemporary

Key Selling Points

- A Romeo & Juliet retelling with an unconventional "happy" ending, where Ros is NOT THE ONE to get the guy, but that doesn't mean she'll end up alone!
- Leyla is a graduate of the Tin House YA Novel Workshop, and her short fiction has recently appeared in The Harvard Advocate, 5x5, and Pigeon Pages.

Once long ago, a girl named Favre sacrificed her wings for love. Thana, the young goddess she so willingly gave them up for, sacrificed that same love for power. But everything has a cost. Favre never got over the loss of her wings. And Thana's choices led to a life of eternal night, and later, their destruction. Favre has bided her time ever since, waiting for the chance to resurrect the girl she loves who turned her into the creature she hates. Now, a thousand years later, Leyla, the crown princess of the malichora—an ancient race that survives on human blood—must travel to the Island of the Dead when her best friend is captured during an attack on her nation's capital. Along with Najja, a fierce, beautiful seer, and the last person she expected to help her, Leyla forges down a dangerous path, intent on saving her friend. But nothing is as it seems. The closer she gets to her goal, the more she risks awakening an ancient evil and destroying everything she holds dear.

Key Selling Points

- It's almost a year from publication, and WHERE SHADOWS MEETS is already growing expectation in GoodReads!
- Sold at Auction in a large six-figure deal!
- A perfect combination that will not only make dye-hard fans of the genre and the lgbtq+ audience fall in love, but also manages to transcend and become a commercial title!

THE OTHER SIDE OF TOGETHER

— Emily Cox & Nicole Allen —

In San Francisco's Chinatown, two opposing worlds collide in secret, creating an impossible romance

Marcus is destined for big things. He's a star soccer player, straight-A student, and gorgeous beyond the hopes of most girls. Especially since they're off limits. Because of his detective dad's painful past with women, Marcus made a bet with him to avoid girls until after high school. So far, so good.

Mei Li's world is anything but bright. She's a pawn in a dangerous game to keep her and her family in America but dreams of a very different life. However, dreams turn to fear when she discovers the guy she's supposed to trust with her heart is more disturbed than she could ever imagine. Even though Mei Li and Marcus live around the corner from each other in San Francisco's Chinatown, the only thing they have in common is a trolley stop. Until the day they step through the same shop door and into a new possibility.

— Rosamund Hodge —

A rich and romantic new standalone fantasy loosely inspired by the classic Sleeping Beauty fairy tale, from the New York Times bestselling author of Cruel Beauty!

Centuries ago, the heretic sorcerer Ruven raised a deadly briar around Runakhia's palace, casting the royal family into an enchanted sleep - and silencing the kingdom's gods.

Born with a miraculous gift, Lia's destiny is to kill Ruven and wake the royals. But when she succeeds, she finds her duty is not yet complete, for now she must marry into the royal family and forge a pact with a god - or die.

To make matters even worse, Ruven's spirit is haunting her.

As discord grows between the old and new guards, the queen sends Lia and Prince Araunn, her betrothed, on a pilgrimage to awaken the gods. But the old gods are more dangerous than Lia ever knew - and Ruven may offer her only hope of survival.

THE PRINCE & THE APOCALYPSE

— Kara McDowell —

An American teen stranded in London is forced to team up with the British crown prince if she wants to make it back home before the end of the world

Wren Wheeler has flown five thousand miles across the ocean to discover she's the worst kind of traveler: the kind who just wants to go home. Her senior-year trip to London was supposed to be life-changing, but by the last day, Wren's perfectly-planned itinerary is in tatters. There's only one item left to check off: breakfast at The World's End restaurant. The one thing she can still get right.

The restaurant is closed for renovations—of course—but there's a boy there, too. A very cute boy with a posh British accent who looks remarkably like the errant Prince Theo, on the run from the palace and his controlling mother. When Wren helps him escape a pack of tourists, the Prince scribbles down his number and offers her one favor in return. She doesn't plan to take him up on it—until she gets to the airport and sees cancelled flights and chaos. A comet is approaching Earth, and the world is ending in eight days. Suddenly, that favor could be her only chance to get home to her family before the end of the world.

WE GOT THE BEAT

Jenna Miller

A queer friends-to-enemies-to-lovers tale!

Jordan Elliott is a fat, nerdy lesbian, and the first junior to be named editor in chief of the school newspaper. Okay, that last part hasn't happened yet, but it will. It's positive thinking that has gotten Jordan this far. Ever since Mackenzie West, her friend-turned-enemy, humiliated her at the start of freshman year, Jordan has thrown herself into journalism and kept her eyes trained on the future.

So it's a total blow when Jordan discovers that she not only didn't get the editor in chief spot, but she's been assigned the volleyball beat instead. And who is the star and newly crowned captain of the volleyball team? Mackenzie West. But words are Jordan's weapon, and she has some ideas about how to exact a long-awaited revenge on her nemesis. Then things get murky when forced time together has Mack and Jordan falling back into their friendship, and into something more. And when Mack confesses the real reason she turned on Jordan freshman year, it has Jordan questioning everything—past, present, and future.

If Jordan lets her guard down and Mack in, will she get everything she wants, or will she be humiliated all over again?

A CRUEL THIRST

Angela Montoya

A thrilling, romantic fantasy adventure where Buffy the Vampire Slayer meets The Legend of Zorro.

Carolina Fuentes wants to join her family in hunting the bloodthirsty vampiros that plague her pueblo. Her father, however, wishes to marry her off to a husband of his choosing, someone who'll take her away from danger. Determined to prove she'd make a better slayer than wife, Carolina vows to take down a monster herself. But when she runs into un vampiro that is somehow extremely attractive and kind, her plan crumbles.

Lalo Villalobos was content leading a perfectly dull life until un vampiro turned him. Now forced to flee his city, he heads to the pueblo where he believes the first vampiro was made. Surely its residents must know how to reverse this dreadful curse.

Instead of finding salvation, Lalo collides with a beautiful young woman who'd gladly drive a dagger through his heart.

THE WORST PERFECT MOMENT

— Shivaun Plozza —

Equal parts tender and edgy, this inventive queer romance imagines what it might feel like to come of age in the afterlife.

Tegan Masters is dead.

She's sixteen and she's dead and she's standing in the parking lot of the Marybelle Motor Lodge, the single most depressing motel in all of New Jersey and the place where Tegan spent what she remembers as the worst weekend of her life.

In the front office, she meets Zelda, a cute and sarcastic girl Tegan's age who is, in fact, an angel (wings and all). According to Zelda, Tegan is officially in heaven, where every person inhabits an exact replica of their happiest memory. For Tegan, Zelda insists, that place is the Marybelle—creepy minigolf course, revolting breakfast buffet, broken TV, and all.

SIXTEEN MINUTES

— K.J. Reilly —

When a new girl arrives in town, seemingly from the future, three teens' lives are turned upside down in this speculative YA novel full of love and loss, and the power of the unknown.

Seventeen-year-old Nell knows two things for sure—she's never going to get out of her rural, dead-end hometown of Clawson, NY and her best friend Stevie B and longtime boyfriend Cole are never going to leave her. That is until Charlotte, a new girl, arrives at their school and their lopsided friend triangle is turned on its axis. While Nell and Stevie B are certain that Charlotte isn't who she says she is, Cole is caught fully in her thrall. There are secret calls and meetings between the two, and Nell knows Cole is keeping something big from her. Now, for the first time in their lives, Nell worries she could lose Cole.

When Nell and Stevie B finally confront Cole and Charlotte, they learn the impossible—Charlotte is actually from the future, and for life altering reasons none of them could have imagined, she wants Cole to jump to the future with her, leaving Nell behind. It's dangerous, it's reckless, but Charlotte convinces them that it's the only choice they have. The trio's future has always seemed set—but with the knowledge that time travel is real, and with a multiverse of futures before them, they now have the option to live lives they could have only dreamed about.

IN THE ORBIT OF YOU

— Ashley Schumacher —

In the Orbit of You is a YA story of enduring love from acclaimed author Ashley Schumacher, where a personality test reunites two friends and makes them second guess their careful plans.

It's been years since Nova Evans last saw Sam. She was too young then to understand why he had to move away—and what it had to do with the cuts and bruises he got from home and never wanted to talk about. All she knew is that they promised to find each other when they were older, something she thought was impossible thanks to her and her mom moving around constantly. Until she bumps into Sam in her new school, and realizes he has clearly forgotten their childhood promise.

Sam Jordan has a plan for his accept his college football scholarship, date his girlfriend Abigail, and—most importantly—hide how much he wants to do something, anything other than The Plan™ his parents and coaches have set before him. It doesn't matter if sometimes he finds himself thinking about the new girl he met in the cafeteria, a girl who reminds him of a past that hurts to remember.

When a school-wide personality test reveals Nova and Sam to be each others' top matches—not only that, but a match of 99%, the highest in the school—they begin to remember why they were such close friends, all those years ago. As well as the myriad of reasons this new-yet-familiar, magnetic, sparkling thing between them will never, ever work out.

WITH LOVE, ECHO PARK

Laura Taylor

Two Cuban teens in LA's Echo Park neighborhood clash over their visions for the future, the secrets between their families...and the sparks flying between them

Seventeen-year-old Clary is set to inherit her family's florist shop, La Rosa Blanca—one of the last remnants of the Cuban business district that once thrived in Los Angeles's Echo Park neighborhood. Clary knows Echo Park is where she'll leave a legacy, and nothing is more important to her than keeping the area's unique history alive. Besides Clary's florist shop, there's only one other business left founded by Cuban immigrants fleeing Castro's regime in the sixties and seventies. And Emilio, who's supposed to take over Avalos Bicycle Works one day, is more flight risk than dependable successor. While others might find Emilio appealing, Clary can see him itching to leave now that he's graduated, and she'll never be charmed by a guy who doesn't care if one more Echo Park business fades away. But then Clary is caught off guard when an unexpected visitor delivers a shocking message from someone she thought she'd left behind. Meanwhile, Emilio realizes leaving home won't be so easy—and Clary, who has always been next door, is who he confides in.

RED IN TOOTH AND CLAW

— Lish McBride —

Faolan Kelly is alone, forced to live among outcasts, and forced to pretend to be a man. But those are minor problems, because every night a beast appears in town, leaving behind a trail of deaths

Faolan Kelly's grandfather is dead. She's alone in the world and suddenly homeless, all because the local powers that be don't think a young man of sixteen is mature enough to take over his grandfather's homestead...and that's with them thinking Faolan is a young man. If she revealed that her grandfather had been disguising her for years, they would marry her off at the first opportunity.

The mayor finds a solution that serves everyone but Faolan: He hires a gunslinger to ship her off to the Settlement, a remote fort where social outcasts live under the leadership of His Benevolence Gideon Dillard. It's a place rife with mystery, kept afloat by suspicious wealth. Dillard's absolute command over his staff just doesn't seem right. And neither do the strange noises that keep Faolan up at night.

PORTRAIT OF A SHADOW

Meriam Metoui

A missing sister. A mysterious boy. And a painting that holds the truth beneath its peeling edge...

Inez is missing, but missing things can always be found.

Mae knows this as a fact, but when she goes to clear out her older sister's studio, she finds a mess of research and a white canvas that seems even older than the ornate frame it is set in. The closer Mae gets to the canvas, the more difficult it is to pull her eyes away from its mottled surface, its heavy layers of white paint, its peeling top corner she is tempted to pull to see what's beneath. But she doesn't. Not yet.

Mae decides to trace her sister's last steps in the hopes of finding answers, certain that Inez's disappearance is related to the painting. And she knows she is desperate enough to let the strange boy who claims to have been Inez's neighbor tag along. Even if his good looks don't help distract from his avoidance of her questions. So begins a scavenger hunt piecing together what they can find from what Inez left behind. One that leads to centuries-old questions best left unasked and secrets best kept in the dark.

THE OTHER SIDE OF PERFECT

Melanie Florence
and Richard Scrimger

Two kids from different worlds form an unexpected friendship in this lens into the interworking of empathy.

Cody's home life is a messy, too-often terrifying story of neglect and abuse. Cody himself is a smart kid, a survivor with a great sense of humor that helps him see past his circumstances and begin to try to get himself out. Autumn is a wealthy girl from an indigenous family, who has found herself in with the popular crowd even though it's hard for her to want to keep up.

But one night, while returning home from a movie, Autumn comes across Cody, face down in the laneway behind her house. All Cody knows is that he can't take another encounter with his father like the one he just narrowly escaped. He can't go home. But he doesn't have anywhere else to go. When Autumn agrees to let him hide out in her dad's art studio, Cody's story begins to come out, and so does hers.

MY SO-CALLED FAMILY

Gia Gordon

A powerful middle-grade debut about friendship, foster care, and realizing the true meaning of family.

Twelve-year-old comics fan and artist Ash (please don't call her "Ashley") Dalton has been in foster care for most of her life. So when her social studies teacher assigns a family tree project the first week of middle school, Ash isn't sure what to do. Maybe she'll just skip the assignment and take an F instead.

But as the first couple weeks of school roll out, Ash comes to learn that family can look like a lot of things: like her best friend, Gentry, who only has a dad because his mom died; or her new friend Joss, who has two dads; even her PE teacher, who takes care of her elderly father. But it isn't until things in Ash's foster home take a turn for the worse, and Ash has to take a risk and ask for help, that she finally begins to understand: Not all families are made of branches and roots; some are made of rings that get added on as time goes by. A found family is a real family.

LET IT GLOW

— Marissa Meyer —

& Joanne Levy

A sweet holiday novel of two twins that didn't meet each other!

When Aviva Davids and Holly Martin meet at the holiday pageant tryouts for their local senior's center, they think they must be seeing double. While they both knew they were adopted, they had no idea they had a biological sibling, let alone an identical twin! The similarities are only skin deep, though, because while Aviva has a big personality and even bigger Broadway plans, Holly is more the quiet dreamer type who longs to become a famous author like her grandfather.

The girls secretly trade lives, planning to stage a dramatic reveal to their families. Two virtual strangers swapping homes, holidays, and age-old traditions—what could possibly go wrong?

Adventure

Key Selling Points

- A phantastic gateway to introduce the little ones to fantasy, with a great moral debate: Can a “bad” girl put aside her own need for revenge to save a good prince...and the entire kingdom?
- Without any doubt, Jenn Bennett captures the essence of fantasy animated pictures that enchanted many generations in their childness, and even grown-ups!

THE KNIGHT THIEVES

Jenn Bennett

Puss in Boots: The Last Wish meets Gail Carson Levine in this charming middle grade fractured fairy tale about an outlaw who teams up with a cursed prince to save the kingdom.

Former fair maiden Rosebud is dread bandit Ruthless Rose, leader of the small but mighty Blackhearts outlaw gang. Ever since the evil Firebrand army torched half their village, the thirteen-year-old daughter of a fallen knight has been living by her own code, picking off evil Firebrand caravans to avenge her village—and her father.

But Rosebud’s honor is put to the test when the Blackhearts mistakenly ambush a carriage smuggling a mysterious passenger: young Prince Fenrik. The shy prince is on the run from the Firebrands...and wearing a hexed wolf mask that can only be removed along with his head. Even worse, the magical object that can free the prince is hidden inside the darkly enchanted Nowhere Wood, where people go in, but they don’t come back out.

- H.E. Edgmon is an author of queer speculative fiction across genres. Haunted and hopeful, his work aims to offer levity without flinching from hard truths.

THE FLICKER

H.E. Edgmon

H.E. Edgmon's middle grade debut is a captivating post-apocalyptic story told through an Indigenous lens, perfect for fans of The Marrow Thieves.

One year ago, a solar flare scorched the Earth and destroyed life as we know it.

With their parents gone and their supplies running low, grieving step-sisters Millie and Rose leave home with their infant half-brother in search of Millie’s grandma, a Seminole elder—who Millie knows in her gut is still alive, even if Rose isn't so sure. Along the way, they meet a group of other surviving kids calling themselves the Lost Boys and their lone adult leader, who reluctantly agree to help them brave the hostile wasteland to make it to Millie’s grandma safely. But the landscape isn't the only threat—there's also the Hive, a villainous group that has spent the last year hoarding supplies and living in luxury . . . and will do anything to keep it that way.

— Christopher Eliopoulos —

While on a playdate with an outgoing new friend, a nervous hedgehog finds the courage to use his imagination

It doesn't take much for Henry, an introverted young hedgehog, to roll up into a tight ball of anxiety.

And now he's on a nerve-racking playdate with a new neighbor, a very energetic chipmunk named Chester.

He wants to go on all kinds of imagined adventures in the backyard, but Henry much prefers the safety of experiencing adventure in the pages of a book. What's more, he's afraid that if he expresses his own creative ideas Chester will think he's silly and uncool.

But with the help of a "magic" stick, a lizard who knows she's actually a dragon, and the encouragement of rambunctious Chester, Henry just might find his bravery and save the playdate!

BIGFOOT'S BIG HEART

— Sarah Glenn Marsh —

Illustrated by Isha Lobo

When Bigfoot loses the valentines he meant to send to his fellow monsters in hiding, scouts from all over the world come together to deliver the letters.

It's lonely being a monster. But having other mythical pen pals helps. When Bigfoot loses the Valentine's Day cards he so tenderly made for his friends around the world, a troop of scouts offers to help. But they will have to get creative to find every mythical creature in time! Sarah Glenn Marsh and Isha Lobo team up again for a sweet Valentine's Day tale about the value of friends, both new and old.

GOOD NIGHT THOUGHTS

Max Greenfield

Illustrations by James Serafino

A picture book to sleep sweetly when dealing with anxiety

What do we do when we can't fall asleep? The child in this story has racing thoughts--funny, silly, and scary--that are running on a cycle they can't stop. It's only when they begin to think to themselves: Do any of these thoughts have merit? Am I in any danger right here and now? that they are finally able to settle down.

A simple but complex message about acknowledging anxiety without succumbing to it that will appeal to so many little ones (and adults) out there who find that nighttime is when their thoughts carry the most weight.

A WALK IN THE WOODS

Nikki Grimes

illustrated by Jerry Pinkney and Brian Pinkney

In this moving account of loss, a boy takes a walk in the woods and makes a discovery that changes his understanding of his father.

Confused and distraught after the death of his father, a boy opens an envelope he left behind and is surprised to find a map of the woods beyond their house, with one spot marked in bright red. But why? The woods had been something they shared together, why would his father want him to go alone?

Slowly, his mind settles as he sets off through the spaces he once explored with his dad, passing familiar beech and black oak trees, flitting Carolina wrens, and a garter snake they named Sal. When he reaches the spot marked on the map, he finds pages upon pages of drawings of woodland creatures, made by his father when he was his age. what he really needed was a walk in the woods.

A LITTLE LIKE MAGIC

Sarah Kurpiel

Glistening with winter charm, this is an exhilarating, tender story of pushing past your comfort zone and finding inspiration in art and natural beauty.

Our young narrator doesn't like itchy hats or cold wind, and she especially doesn't like going places she's never been before. But she reluctantly agrees to join her mom at an ice festival, where they watch sculptors chisel and drill until it's too cold to watch anymore. That night the girl discovers that she has lost the horse figurine she'd brought with her, and she wishes she'd never gone . . . until the next night, when they return to the festival and see what the artists have created: sparkling, glorious sculptures that feel a little like magic. One surprise in particular seems even more magical to the girl. The ice art will stay with her long, long after it has melted away.

Adventure

Key Selling Points

- Pushing past emotional discomfort and trying something new can be greatly rewarding, as this story touchingly shows.
- The author uses a power wheelchair and has worked her lived experience into the book as an authentic visual-only element.

THE LITTLE MERMAID

Jerry Pinkney

A captivating reimagining of Hans Christian Andersen's classic.

Melody, the littlest sea princess, is not content just to sing in the choir of mermaids like her sisters. She is an explorer who wonders about what lies above the water's surface . . . especially the young girl she has spied from a distance. To meet her requires a terrible sacrifice: she trades her beautiful voice for a potion that gives her legs, so that she may live on land instead. It seems like a dream come true at first. But when trouble stirs beneath the ocean, Melody faces another impossible choice -- stay with her friend, or reclaim her true identity and save her family.

Key Selling Points

- Caldecott medalist and bestselling artist Jerry Pinkney conjures a poignant friendship story and an epic tale of redemption -- the definitive new version for our time
- THE LITTLE MERMAID received five starred reviews and made the New York Times Best Picture Books of 2020.

THIS BOOK IS MY BEST FRIEND

Robin Robinson

When two young readers reach for the same book at the library, they set off on a charming romp through the stacks in this rambunctious and endearing picture book.

Sunny and Aarush both love to read. In fact, it is their favorite thing. For Aarush, a book is like a refuge for when you want to be alone. For Sunny, a book is like a companion that keeps you from being lonely. There is only one problem: they are best friends with the same book, and neither wants to share.

Clearly, one of them will have to find something else to read—but maybe they'll discover something even better along the way. Could it be sharing is the best part of reading and friendship?

Friendship

Key Selling Points

- A sweet book with rich illustrations, filled with a diverse world of friendship and childhood fun!
- Robinson's work encapsulates the joy that comes from reading and sharing your experience with those you care about.

I QUIT

Kristen Tracy

Illustrations by Federico Fabiani

A stylishly illustrated picture book about a comically misbehaving kitty who's had just about enough... only to find out she's had what she needed all along.

For kitty, each day feels gray. But one day, she is adopted and her world changes. Suddenly, she has everything she wants...

Until the rules come. NO scratching the window screens. NO eating the bread. NO chasing the baby. She has had enough of being called a "bad kitty." It's not easy to part with everything she loves, but she has no other choice: she quits!

But life in the great outdoors is harder than it looks. The darkness and the rain make kitty feel gray again. Realizing she's made a few mistakes, kitty decides to do better...but which way is home?

PENCIL & ERASER SERIES

Jenny Alvarado

This hilarious new early-reader graphic novel series follows the adventures of two best friend school supplies: Pencil and Eraser!

It's the start of a new school year, and Pencil and Eraser are ready for anything. Except when Pencil notices her point has dulled. That's never happened before and she feels...pointless. Stella can't write with a dull pencil. So what can Pencil do?

The only answer is to leave the comfort of their desk behind and venture out to find a sharpener. But if Pencil is going on an adventure, she'll need to bring her (reluctant) bestie Eraser along for the ride. Together they'll have to traverse the classroom, scale a mountain-sized desk, enter uncharted territory of the school hallway, and avoid being caught by the janitor.

Can Pencil and Eraser manage all that before Stella and her classmates return from recess?

STORIES OF THE ISLANDS

Clar Angkasa

Journey into a land of magic and powerful women based on Indonesian folk tale, lushly reimaged by a debut graphic novelist

Once upon a time. . .

A princess was cursed to live as a snail,
Two sisters were trapped by their father's wrath,
And a mother and daughter faced a hungry giant.

No one is coming to save them.

Will they get their happily ever after?

In Stories of the Islands, debut graphic novelist Clar Angkasa takes three folk tales from her childhood in Indonesia and gives them back to the girl characters, following their hopes, dreams, and journeys for freedom from natural and unnatural forces. Why should women in folk tales be sidelined or reduced to tropes? What if we tell their stories, instead?

SUNHEAD

Alex Assan

High schooler Rotem feels herself growing apart from her friends, but an unexpected connection with another student makes her feel more herself than ever before

Rotem is a Sunhead, a fan of the international smash hit Sunrise series of books and films. She's obsessed with the story's love interest, Ed mund, and no one else gets it. But all that changes when she befriends Ayala, a shy classmate and avid book lover who's as swept away by the romance as she is. The two become fast friends, but as their deep connection grows stronger, Rotem starts to wonder: What exactly draws her to this story? Alex Assan's debut, Sunhead, is an earnest coming-of-age graphic novel that explores how the stories we love help us understand our friendships, our relationships, and ourselves

Jennifer Dugan

illustrated by Kit Seaton

A queer, supernatural YA graphic novel, where a reluctant teen werewolf would do anything to be human—if that's what it takes to win her crush's heart.

High school senior Tessa doesn't fit in anywhere. Not at school, where she can't figure out how to confess the feelings she's had for her best friend Maddie since the fourth grade. And definitely not at home, where the rest of her family of werewolves make her feel like an outcast because she can't even shift into her full wolf form yet. Sometimes she thinks her whole life would be easier if she was normal, like Maddie and everyone else at school.

NIGHT OF THE LIVING ROCKS

Dom Pelletier

Tia, Leo and Mr. Peabody face off against Madame Celeste and her minions in her secret underground lair, where she's been plotting – naturally – to take over the world.

The Lunch Club heroes have a perfect plan: wait until midnight, then sneak in and rescue Mr. Fish, the guardian of the Pisces constellation. What they don't account for? Madame Celeste has a legion of living rock minions, who capture Mr. Peabody. The list of who Tia and Leo need to save keeps getting longer . . . until it includes them too! Things take an even more desperate turn when Madame Celeste, in a misguided plan to win friends and influence people, attempts to control the guardian of the thirteenth sign of the zodiac. This thirteenth sign is so powerful (and evil) that it has been kept secret throughout history.

Key Selling Points

- A YA graphic novel that is pure summer: adolescence distilled down to its most addictive elements, and an exploration of the question “what’s next” after high school ends, a topic relatable to many teenagers.
- Heartfelt and beautifully illustrated, Andi Porretta's debut graphic novel is a coming-of-age story that reminds we don't have to have the rest of our lives figured out on anyone else's schedule.

READY OR NOT

— Andi Porretta —

An anxious teen hopes that a summer of adventure and offbeat dares will keep her friend group together after graduation,

With senior year finally behind them, Cassie and her three best friends are on their way to what’s next. Like their parents, the crew has always been inseparable: there’s Marcy, the artist; Aaron, the future lawyer, ; Nico, the musician, whose flirtatiousness, obliviousness, and recent interest in a rising senior are becoming increasingly unbearable to Cassie; and of course, Cassie herself, the only one who doesn’t have her future all figured out.

This summer is their last chance to make memories together in New York City before everyone but Cassie scatters across the globe for college—and she’s determined to make the most of it. Her plan? They’ll spend August playing the game of dares and risks they invented as kids! From adventurous to outrageous, these dares will definitely make for an unforgettable summer. Even better, Cassie is hopeful they’ll help the group stay friends no matter what...because she is not ready for a future without them.

THE GHOSTKEEPER

Johanna Taylor

This gothic graphic novel follows a young medium with the gift to communicate with the dead.

Dorian Leith can see ghosts. Not only that, he listens to their problems and tries to help them move on to the afterlife. It's a gift that's made him an outcast to everyone in town. That is except for his dearly departed grandmother, who he's partnered with to turn this paranormal ability into an honest living, and the local bookshop owner, who seems to be the only non-deceased person willing to give him a chance. But it's all worth it to Dorian, who feels like he's been given a bigger purpose. A chance to save those who cannot save themselves.

Key Selling Points

THE TERRIFYING TALES OF VIVIAN VANCE

Joshua Ulrich

Veronica Mars by way of Lovecraft in this thrilling lightly gothic YA graphic novel, for those who love a dash of campy and a dollop of darkness.

Parents in Pensmouth tell their children a devious bedtime tale—their beloved town is riddled with flesh-takers, monsters who snatch unruly kids off the street if they don't go to sleep on time.

Vivian Vance, amateur teen detective, heard that story as a kid and never believed it.

When Vivian takes on a case in the Pillars, a downtrodden and long-ignored community beneath the highway, she stumbles on a dark secret about her town's history and finds herself face-to-face with those horrifying monsters. Saved from certain death by a group of kids from the Pillars, Vivian decides her next job will be exposing the flesh-takers to the world—at any cost.

Key Selling Points

- Josh Ulrich's brand of storytelling blends lighthearted comedy with serious and frightening threats.
- In true adolescent spirit, the power of friendship carries our heroine Vivian through to the end, especially as she grapples with her own geographical privilege and ambition.

LUNAR BOY

Jacinta & Jessica
Wibowo

In this touching slice-of-life story, a boy from the moon deals with culture shock, familial struggle, and first crushes on Earth.

Indu, a boy from the moon, is the adopted son of an astronaut. Raised on a community spaceship called the Eyesun, space is all he's ever known. When the ship shuts down, Indu and his mother settle into a blended family on New Earth, but as his mother slips into her new life, Indu has a harder time. He struggles to adjust to life on New Earth, dealing with culture shock, friend drama, familial conflict, (not to mention a crush that might not like him back) and in a desperate moment, begs the moon to take him back. Against all odds, the moon hears Indu's call, and offers to return Indu at the end of the season on the first day of the New Year. But as the promised day inches closer, Indu discovers friendship in unlikely places, and that family is more than where you come from.

When the moon comes to make good on its promise, Indu will have to decide what it means to belong.

HOW TO BE A WITCH

Gabrielle Balkan & Shana Gozansky
illust. Carmen Saldaña

A witch-themed picture book unlike any other - it's nonfiction!

Most people, kids included, have very specific associations with “witch” - perhaps a scheming, warted, and/or green-faced woman in a pointy hat and heels, brewing a potion with gruesome ingredients intended for harm or dark magic. And though witches are real, none of that is actually true!

Over many centuries, knowledgeable, powerful, and healing women have been demonized by men who fear a loss of power or pride. And through those same centuries, certain people have passed down their lived and learned knowledge of nature’s power to heal. Those who identify as witches today are most often natural healers whose wisdom serves to help those around them.

THE ANTIRACIST KID

GOING BICOASTAL

— Dalia Adler —

A girl must choose between summer in NYC with her dad (and the girl she's always wanted) or LA with her estranged mom (and the guy she never saw coming).

Natalya Fox has twenty-four hours to make the biggest choice of her life: stay home in NYC for the summer with her dad (and finally screw up the courage to talk to the girl she's been crushing on), or spend it with her basically estranged mom in LA (knowing this is the best chance she has to fix their relationship, if she even wants to.) (Does she want to?)

How's a girl supposed to choose?

She can't, and so both summers play out in alternating timelines - one in which Natalya explores the city, tries to repair things with her mom, works on figuring out her future, and goes for the girl she's always wanted. And one in which Natalya explores the city, tries to repair things with her mom, works on figuring out her future, and goes for the guy she never saw coming.

FIVE BROKEN BLADES

— Mai Corland —

Game of Thrones meets Kill Bill in a feast of treason and seduction set against a dazzling fantasy backdrop of Korean history and folklore.

The five most dangerous liars in the land have been mysteriously summoned to work together for a single objective: to kill the God King Joon.

He has it coming. Under his merciless immortal hand, the nobles flourish, while the poor and innocent are imprisoned, ruined...or sold.

And now each of the five blades will come for him. Each has tasted bitterness—from the hired hitman seeking atonement, a lovely assassin who seeks freedom, or even the prince banished for his cruel crimes. None can resist the sweet, icy lure of vengeance.

They can agree on murder.

They can agree on treachery.

But for these five killers—each versed in deception, lies, and betrayal—it's not enough to forge an alliance. To survive, they'll have to find a way to trust each other...but only one can take the crown.

A TEMPEST OF TEA

— Hafsah Faizal —

A hotly-anticipated new fantasy duology about an orphan girl and her crew who get tangled in a heist with vampires, perfect for fans of Leigh Bardugo's Six of Crows

On the streets of White Roaring, Arthie Casimir is a criminal mastermind and collector of secrets. Her prestigious tearoom transforms into an illegal bloodhouse by night, catering to the vampires feared by society. But when her establishment is threatened, Arthie is forced to strike an unlikely deal with an alluring adversary to save it—she can't do the job alone.

Calling on some of the city's most skilled outcasts, Arthie hatches a plan to infiltrate the sinister, glittering vampire society known as the Athereum. But not everyone in her ragtag crew is on her side, and as the truth behind the heist unfolds, Arthie finds herself in the midst of a conspiracy that will threaten the world as she knows it. Dark, action-packed, and swoonworthy, this is Hafsah Faizal better than ever.

Key Selling Points

THE HALF KING

— Melissa Landers —

Beauty and the Beast meets The Sandman in this all-new, scorching-hot NA fantasy

In a world where birth order determines your fate, what if everything you believed about yourself was a lie?

Like all second-born daughters of the realm, Cerise Solon has never ventured beyond the temple grounds where she lives in service to the goddess. But unlike her peers, Cerise is a complete failure as an oracle. Her inability to foretell a single tragedy has brought shame upon her family, something she sees reflected in their eyes during their rare visits. Everything changes when the head seer offers Cerise an opportunity to serve the Half King—a young man who rules by day and turns to shadow at sunset.

THE WREN IN THE HOLLY LIBRARY

— Mary McMyne —

Bestselling Author K.A. Linde's incredible tale in which A Darker Shade of Magic meets Six of Crows, in this alternate day New York where monsters live among humankind.

Kierse should have known something wasn't right. Now she's trapped in the library of an old building... with a monster. His powers aren't supposed to exist. He can't run. He can't hide. And this man, this being, full of terrible power and darkness, is within his rights to kill her.

Thirteen years ago, monsters came to light and brutalized the world of Kierse. The Monster Treaty created a kind of peace—one that is not always respected—. Now Kierse has broken the treaty. But instead of killing her, Graves does the unexpected: he offers her a job... a vision of who he really is.

Kierse has always known he's different. He can make things a little better, a little faster. And there's that feeling you get when danger is a sigh away. But if the old tales are true, there are worse things in the world than monsters.

As an older threat than legends.

Like Graves.

Or like Kierse herself...

Key Selling Points

- Set in our world behind an element of rupture, as in The Hunger Games, the love plot is combined with big unknowns, managing to engage the reader with an insatiable hunger for answers!
- The action takes place in New York: one of the most recognizable cultural icons of the United States. However, it is also a place where anonymity and the sensation of smallness multiply. A tense scenario, where monsters live among humans.

SINNER'S ISLE

— Angela Montoya —

A powerful witch will do anything to escape the remote island she's being held captive on, including blackmail a notorious, charming pirate who washes up on shore

Rosalinda is trapped on Sinner's Isle, an island filled with young women like her—Majestics, beautiful witches loathed by society for their dangerous magic yet revered by powerful men who want to use them.

For years, she has been kept under the watchful, calculating eye of Doña Lucia. Now eighteen, Rosa will be the prized commodity at this year's Offering, a fiesta for the wealthy to engage in drink, damsels, and debauchery. That is why she must flee—before someone forces the vicious phantoms within her to destroy everything she touches.

Handsome, swashbuckling Mariano has long sailed the high seas as the Prince of Pirates. Then the king's fleet attacks his father's infamous ship, leaving him marooned on Sinner's Isle with only an enchanted chain meant to lead him to his heart's desire. Instead, he falls into the hands of a brazen (although) bewitching headache—Rosa.

THE GAMES GODS PLAY

— Abigail Owen —

Percy Jackson with some heat! A slow burn romance between a competitor in the Games and Hades himself!

Every hundred years, the gods toy with us mere mortals. And we let them. Percy Jackson meets the Hunger Games in an alternate contemporary world where the gods of mythology never died. Now, every hundred years, a new reigning king or queen of the Greek gods is chosen through the Crucible. The twelve gods/ goddesses of the Pantheon each choose a mortal champion, and those champions are tested in a series of Labors until either one champion emerges with the most Labors won...or eleven are dead, and there's only one left standing. Only this time... Hades joins the Crucible. And the pretty young master thief he chooses as his champion is the perfect weapon in a new game Hades alone is playing.

BLOODGUARD

— Cecy Robson —

Gladiator meets Ellis Island in an action-packed love story!

One hundred years. Tens of thousands of gladiators. And today, only one will rise...

Everything in the Kingdom of Arrow is a lie.

Leith of Grey thought coming to this new land and volunteering to fight in the gladiator arena—vicious, bloodthirsty tournaments where only the strongest survive—would earn him enough gold to save his dying sister. He thought there was nothing left to lose.

He was wrong—and they took everything. His hope. His freedom. His very humanity.

All Leith has left is his battle-scarred body, fueled by rage and hardened from years of fighting for the right to live another day.

Then Leith meets Maeve, an elven royal who is everything he despises. Everything he should hate. Until the alluring princess offers him the one thing he needs most: a chance to win the coveted title of Bloodguard—and his freedom.

SORCERY OF THORNS

— Margaret Rogerson —

An apprentice at a magical library must battle a powerful sorcerer to save her kingdom!

All sorcerers are evil. Elisabeth has known that as long as she has known anything. Raised as a foundling in one of Austermeer's Great Libraries, Elisabeth has grown up among the tools of sorcery—magical grimoires that whisper on shelves and rattle beneath iron chains. If provoked, they transform into grotesque monsters of ink and leather. She hopes to become a warden, charged with protecting the kingdom from their power.

Then an act of sabotage releases the library's most dangerous grimoire. Elisabeth's desperate intervention implicates her in the crime, and she is torn from her home to face justice in the capital. With no one to turn to but her sworn enemy, the sorcerer Nathaniel Thorn, and his mysterious demonic servant, she finds herself entangled in a centuries-old conspiracy. Not only could the Great Libraries go up in flames, but the world along with them.

As her alliance with Nathaniel grows stronger, Elisabeth starts to question everything she's been taught—about sorcerers, about the libraries she loves, even about herself.

FALLEN GODS

Rachel van Dyken

American Gods meets 365 days in a spellbinding Norse fantasy of a war between gods from #1 New York Times bestselling author Rachel Van Dyken.

Liv Olson has been drawn to Norse Mythology her entire life. After earning her degree and working as a curator at one of New York's most prestigious museums, she gets an unexpected offer for her dream job in Norway—the same place her brother disappeared months ago after a cryptic message about finding their long-lost father. She finds herself surrounded by superstitious townspeople who refuse to even look at the water. Liv soon realizes that the small town of Vonn is nothing like it seems. Shops close before dark, and things she's only read about seem to suddenly exist. To top it off, her new boss, Tristan, is insultingly mean and engagingly beautiful—and, as part of the job, she must live with him in his mansion.

Key Selling Points

- For fans of sexy romantasy and Neon Gods by Katee Robert, Rachel Van Dyken's Fallen Gods duology is a sexy, dramatic myth retelling.
- Dark and sexy, it would perfectly fit in Netflix's Catalogue.
- Rachel Van Dyken is the #1 New York Times, Wall Street Journal, and USA TODAY Bestselling author of regency and contemporary romances.

STAR BRINGER

Tracy Wolff

An exciting and immersive sci-fi, where Aurora Rising, The Breakfast Club and Firefly collide!

The sun is dying...and it's happening way too damn fast. With the clock ticking, the Nine Planets' only hope of survival rests on a fancy space station and the alien artifact it's carrying. Which is why it really sucks when some jackass doesn't want the universe saved and blows that station up—while you're still on it.

So if your only choices are flaming death or stealing a flying hunk of space junk—you pick that busted-ass spaceship. Even if it leaves seven strangers with deadly secrets trapped together: a princess, a prisoner, a con artist, a warrior, a priestess, a mercenary, and an asshole in charge of us all.

Now every faction in the galaxy is hunting this ship—from the Sisterhood to the Corporation, and the rebellion's joining in on the fun, too. We just need to stop drinking, fighting, and screwing long enough to evade them all and save the freaking universe...somehow.

Key Selling Points

- The romance takes place through Wordle: THE word game that has been sweeping the world since 2022!
- Amy's debut comes with the purchase of two books by Avon (HarperCollins), a clear indication of the tremendous potential of the author!
- An original premise, with a nerdy and intellectual point of view.

A FIVE-LETTER WORD FOR LOVE

Amy James

A heartwarming and humorous adult contemporary romance about an unlikely couple who fall in love over Wordle.

Emily doesn't have a lot going well in her life. She dreams of a creative career in a big city, but works as a receptionist in an auto shop on Prince Edward Island. What Emily does have is a 300+ day streak on the New York Times Wordle. But one day, with only one guess left, she's forced to turn to her irritating, car-obsessed coworker, John, for help—and in doing so, realizes that he might not be so irritating after all. As they make their way, word by word, toward a 365-day streak, Emily is drawn into a surprising romance that will challenge everything she thought she knew about happiness, success, and love.
